Call to Order

Kimberly Lawler, Chairperson, called the meeting to order at 9:37 a.m.

The Section began the meeting by reading the vision statement.

The Occupational Therapy Section is committed to proactively:

- Provide Education to the Consumers of Occupational Therapy Services;
- Enforce Practice Standards for the Protection of the Consumer of Occupational Therapy Services;
- Regulate the Profession of Occupational Therapy in an Ever-Changing Environment;
- Regulate Ethical and Multicultural Competency in the Practice of Occupational Therapy;
- Regulate the Practice of Occupational Therapy in all Current and Emerging Areas of Service Delivery.

Strategic Planning

The Section reviewed the 2009-2011 Strategic Planning Schedule. The Section has been committed to completing the tasks of restructuring the supervision and delegations rules and revising the code of ethics and the jurisprudence examination. The Section will continue to perform outreach and education to occupational therapy stakeholders through presentations and publications. The updated Strategic Planning Schedule is attached to the minutes for reference.

Presentation Planning

OT/PT School Based Institute

The Section reviewed and revised the draft presentation. The Executive Director will send the reviewed presentation to the conference organizers.

OOTA Conference

The Section present at the upcoming OOTA Conference, which will be held in Cleveland, Ohio in October 2010. Jean Halpin will submit the Section's proposal to present at the conference to OOTA by July 1, 2010.

Review Potential Changes to the Code of Ethics

The Section reviewed the proposed elements for the new Code of Ethical Conduct. The Section identified the five content areas for the organization of the proposed code of ethical conduct. These are: operations, clients, professional conduct, reporting requirements, and cooperation. The Section will review the draft code of ethics at the September 2010 Section meeting.

Action: Mary Stover moved to adjourn the meeting. Jean Halpin seconded the motion. The motion carried. The meeting adjourned at 3:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Diane Moore
